

(BBE) deptt of DAVIM under the guidance of our Head of the Institute, Dr. Neelam Gulati, with great zest and enthusiasm. The chief guest of the programme was Shri. Umish Srivastav, DGM, Indian Oil and the guest of honor was Kavi Dinesh Raghuvanshi. Other guests present there were Prof. Dr. S. K. Chakravarty and Prof Dr. Neeraj Singh. The programme included Poem Recitation competition, Best Out of Waste and Poster Detailing. A talk show was also organized in which the students interacted with the guests and were inspired by the techniques shared with them to curb Global Warming and Pollution. Towards the end, Dr. Neelam Gulati added numerous examples to prove that we humans are responsible for the heated up condition of the Earth and we should love nature, appreciate it and do our bit to help save our mother Earth for ourselves and for the generations to come.

WOMEN'S DAY - AN ODE TO WOMANHOOD

The willingness to listen, patience to understand, strength to support, heart to care and just be there-that is the beauty of a women. Every 8th March International Women's Day (IWD) is celebrated world wide to commemorate the achievements of women of past and present throughout the world and how could DAVIM miss celebrating this very important day, when in their organization 85 percent of faculty and staff are women and girls comprise the maximum of their student population. DAVIM'S BBCAM Deptt. Commemorated woman day and hosted an array of distinguished guests who shared their experience being a responsible female and encouraged all to give respect to each other as women, Ms Hema Kaushik, Protection Officer-Com-Child Marriage, Prohibition Officer, Women & Child Department, Haryana, Ms. Sunita Yadav, District Employment Officer, CA Priyanka Garg, Practicing Chartered Accountant CS Ambika Vasdev, chairperson -Women Cell Chamber of Indian Overseas Entrepreneurs. The Head of the Institute Dr. Neelam Gulati, initiated the session with her enlightening speech and urged people to give respect and honour to all the women, whether, she is a mother, daughter, wife or a friend. The nation which respects women, is the nation with the real tag line, "Being Human."

FDP ON IMPLICATIONS OF BHAGWAT GEETA IN MANAGEMENT

The Bhagavad Gita Is Preached In The Battle Field of Kurukshetra By Lord Krishna To Arjuna As A Counselling To Do His Duty. It Has Got All The Management Tactics To Achieve The Mental Equilibrium....."

Hence, to inculcate in the teachers, who are always called the building blocks of nation, the equilibrium of teaching and managing time and also to teach the same to their disciples, the FDP, on Implications of Bhagwat Geeta in Management was organized for all the faculty members on 19th March 2016 in the Institute's "Yogna" Hall, by Dr. Ritu Arora and Ms. Ashima Tandon of the FDP cell. The resource person was a renowned Col. V. K. Gaur professor and proponent of philosophy also an alumni faculty of DAVIM. He advocated that the lack of management would cause disorder, confusion, wastage, delay, destruction and even depression. "The general principles of effective management can be applied in every field the differences being mainly in the application than in Gita principles." The Head of the Institute, Dr. Neelam Gulati, thanked him for his valuable words of wisdom and encouraged the faculty to make reading a perpetual activity, especially, the Holy GITA a persistent activity to widen one's horizon.