

“JOY OF GIVING FOR ROSHNI STUDENTS”

The best service to God is social service and the one indulging in it, wholeheartedly, will always find himself nearer to God. Hence, following the tradition of DAV, “Serving People”, the Head of the Institute, Dr. Neelam Gulati, distributed goodies amongst the children of Roshni –NGO on 3RD December 2016. The smile and gratitude on the faces of the children made her happy and she wished that everyone from the society should come forward and do their bit for making lives simpler and happier for these children.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS AT KHUSHI - AN NGO

The core values of Christmas are sharing, spreading love and caring for all. And at DAVIM, we believe in doing the same and never leave an opportunity to come forward to do our bit in brightening up someone's life. This Christmas too DAVIM brightened the lives of the senior citizens and the children of Khushi-Ahsaas, an NGO run for the old and deaf and dumb children. To mark the spirit of Christmas, lunch and sweets were distributed to all. The old were given woolen socks and stationery items were distributed amongst the children. The Head of the Institute blessed the faculty of DAVIM for making their day and the children enjoyed every moment of the joyous celebrations of Christmas. The Head of the Institute Dr. Neelam Gulati, applauded the efforts made by the staff and encouraged them to do their bit for such NGOs.

MERRY MAKING AT ROSHNI-AN NGO

The festival of Christmas was also celebrated with gaiety by the faculty of DAVIM, at Roshni-an NGO. The students sang carols and enjoyed the day with great enthusiasm and fervor. The staff reflected upon the teachings of Jesus Christ and his life.

The students and the staff danced to numbers like “We wish you a Merry Christmas.” The whole school echoed with the holy hymns recited by the students.

The staff distributed utensils for the students on this pious occasion. The faculty members Ms.Vandana and Ms. Geetika had also brought home cooked food and the students heartily relished the food.

HOLI CELEBRATIONS AT ROSHNI-AN NGO

To keep the spirit of Holi alive DAVIM celebrated this festival of colours with Roshni-an NGO, for the under-privileged children. The festivities started with prayers followed by distribution of sweets and thandai. There was also a small session of storytelling and poem to which everyone responded wonderfully.

After that the children were showed videos of hiranykashap and bhakt prahlad to make them aware of the reason of holi celebration and all of them responded very well. The children played holi with natural colours and threw flowers at each other. DAVIM faculty shared their views that Holi is a festival
